

HUMAN JOURNEYS IN THE GLOBAL ERA

CANBERRA ROUNDTABLE INTERNATIONAL ENGAGEMENT

CONVENOR

Professor Jacqueline Lo, ANU

DATE

16 August 2018, 3-5 pm followed by reception

VENUE

ANU Centre for European Studies,
1 Liversidge Street, ANU

VISITING DELEGATION

GERMANY

Prof. Beate Neumeier (Chair, Department of English, University of Cologne)

Prof. Alfred Hornung (Research Professor of American Studies & English, Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz)

Vicky Herche (Postdoctoral Researcher & Lecturer, Department of English, University of Cologne)

David Kern (Research Assistant & PhD Candidate, Department of English, University of Cologne)

NETHERLANDS

Marion Bregman (Guest Researcher, Huygens ING, Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences)

Dr Marijke van Faassen (Senior Researcher, Department of History, Huygens ING, Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts & Sciences)

Dr Rik Hoekstra (Digital Historian and ICT Project Manager, Huygens ING, Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts & Sciences)

USA

Prof. Jeffrey Schnapp (Faculty Director of metaLAB (at) Harvard & Faculty Co-director, Berkman Klein Center for Internet & Society, Harvard University / Carl A. Pescosolido Chair in Romance Languages & Literatures and Comparative Literature)

Prof. Maria Gough (Distinguished Joseph Pulitzer, Jr. Professor of Modern Art, Harvard)

PERTH, AUSTRALIA

Prof. Paul Arthur (Chair in Digital Humanities & Social Sciences / Director, Centre for Global Issues, Edith Cowan University)

Dr Nonja Peters (Visiting Professor, Institute Migration & Ethnic Studies, University of Amsterdam / Adjunct Associate Professor, Curtin University)

This invitation-only event will focus on migration, globalisation and the worldwide movement of people and ideas. The visiting delegation are participants in a research program examining the contemporary and historical pressures of migration and its representation in media, journalism and public debates. The ANU roundtable will centre on Australia's contribution to the scholarship on migration and its links with Europe and the USA. Particular attention will be paid to the role of cultural heritage and cultural institutions in representing human journeys.

This is an informal meeting with limited seating. Please RSVP to Europe@anu.edu.au by Friday 10 August.

This event is part of a national series of workshops sponsored by the Australian National Commission for UNESCO, Australia-Germany Joint Research Cooperation Scheme (UA/DAAD), Australian National Maritime Museum, Edith Cowan University Centre for Global Issues, and the ANU Centre for European Studies Jean Monnet Network on Migration and Integration.

C-Global
Edith Cowan Centre
for Global Issues

ANU CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN STUDIES

Australian National Commission
for UNESCO

DAAD